HUMAN SERVICES AND EDUCATION IN SOUTH DAKOTA
COU 594: Historical Trauma & Treatment in Indian Country

Visit Native schools, universities, cultural centers, and Indian Reservations of South Dakota to gain an understanding of historical multigenerational trauma and experiences of Native people in the United States. Explore issues pertaining to cultural and generational trauma, its effects on Indian people, and related treatment.

EDU 316-001: Racism & Sexism in Educational Institutions

Visit Native schools, universities, and cultural centers for an in-depth understanding of racism and diversity as it relates to Native American culture. Explore the Lakota culture and belief systems for a connection to social studies and history, while doing a comparative analysis of Lakota Indian education and the US.

MARCH 3-11, 2017

Application Deadline- November 18, 2016

CONTACT:
Professor Rodney Valandra
valandrar@nku.edu
MEP 256/859-572-5188

Professor David Childs
childsd1@nku.edu
MEP 277/859-572-1931

Office of Education Abroad
Candace Gibson
gibsonc3@nku.edu
UC 330/859-572-6928